The adopter hereby declares that no representation about the nature of the adopted cat, nor any representation regarding the nature and extent of legal liability or of responsibility have induced the adopter to sign this contract. Initial to declare your understanding of above paragraph: _____

CARE: The welfare of this cat is the sole responsibility of the adopter. The adopter agrees to give the cat good care which includes: fresh food and water, dry and accessible shelter and medical care as needed for the remainder of this cats life.

Initial to declare your understanding of above paragraph: _____

VETERINARY CARE: After adoption, this cat's health is the adopter's full responsibility. The cat will receive proper care by a licensed veterinarian THROUGHOUT ITS ENTIRE LIFE, including ALL RABIES SHOTS, as well as all other preventative and required treatments in accordance with veterinary recommendations for the LIFE OF THE CAT. Adopter will arrange for immediate veterinary care in the event of illness or injury. The declawing of outdoor cats puts the cat at risk of death therefore I, the owner, agree NOT to declaw this animal.

Initial to declare your understanding of above paragraph: _____

CONDUCT & HEALTH OF CAT: Adopter understands that no one can predict how a cat will react in a new situation. Some barn cats may leave and never return. Therefore, adopter will exercise prudence and caution in introducing this cat into any new situation until the cat has become fully adjusted to its new environment. Adopter assumes full responsibility for the conduct of this cat and for any damage to persons or property. LRHS makes no explicit or implicit guarantees in reference to the health and/or temperament of the cat. The cat is adopted "as is" and the adopter assumes all responsibility for treatment of any and all existing conditions or any other physical, medical or temperament changes that may occur in the future. LRHS cannot guarantee the health of any animal and shall not be held responsible for any medical expenses which may be incurred, hereby expressly excluding any implied or express warranties of merchantability or fitness for any particular purpose, including, without limitation, any warranties regarding health, temperament or whether the animal is housebroken.

Initial to declare your understanding of above paragraph: _____

TRANSFER OF OWNERSHIP: The ownership and responsibility for this dog/cat belongs solely to adopter. If adopter can no longer keep this cat or provide it with good care, including food, shelter or veterinary care, adopter agrees to contact LRHS to inform them of the situation.

LRHS has provided the best information it can about the cat, and adopter accepts responsibility for the cat based on the information available and provided at the time of this Agreement. Adopter does not hold LRHS responsible for errors in the information provided about this cat. Adopter realizes any rescue only knows what the previous owners have told it or very little in the case of a stray. The Release Statement below releases LRHS from any and all liabilities with respect to this cat's behavior, actions, health or performance. Adopter therefore forfeits any right to sue. Adopter understands that in the event he/she gives false information or does not follow the terms of this contract, LRHS may reclaim this cat and start legal proceedings against adopter at adopter's expense, and may assess damages in the amount of $1,000, plus legal fees, against adopter. Initial to declare your understanding of above paragraph: _____
